Couple of things to remember

- Do not select 'Play Online'
- If you are a player short, you do not need to enter a players name, if you only select 2 players for a triples and select start game, the App will ask you if you want to continue. If select yes, the App will automatically enter a miss for that third player.
- If playing with a player short, then you have to play 3 players in the first triples and however many players you have left in the second triples.
- When playing in the doubles you have to play 2 players in the first doubles (and second doubles) and however many players you have in the third doubles (or forfeit the last doubles if only playing with 4 players)

If in the singles game and there is a player short, meaning a forfeit, then select the player who is available and then select 'Forfeit/Win'.

Forfeiting a game

The screenshot shows a mobile application interface with a white background and a black header. The header contains an information icon (i) on the left, the title "Options" in the center, and a close icon (X) on the right. Below the header, the text "Select Winning Circumstance" is displayed. There are seven buttons stacked vertically: "Forfeit" (highlighted with a dark grey background), "Other" (grey), "Mark P" (light grey), "Quinns Black" (light grey), "Both" (light grey), "Add Match Note" (light grey), and "Continue" (green). A speech bubble points to the "Forfeit" button.

Entering a 'Forfeit'

You then have to select Forfeiting opponent
